

Ian Wagner

Front-End Developer

 ian@ianwag.com

 ianwag.com

 github.com/ian-wag

 linkedin.com/in/ian-wag

 Chicago, IL

Skills

Languages: HTML, CSS, JavaScript

Technologies: React, Git, SASS

Education

Palm Beach State College

Associate of Arts Degree - 2010

Summary

Growth-oriented creative coder who makes responsive and appealing websites. Seeking an opportunity to work with an exciting, energetic team in an entry-level position.

Projects

Personal Website

<https://ianwag.com/>

- Used SASS to break up styling into separate components for a more organized project
- Implemented Dark color scheme using CSS custom properties
- Utilized gulp.js in workflow to minify and configure files for development and production builds
- Built with HTML, SASS, and JavaScript

Airbnb Clone

<https://airbnb-nextjs-six.vercel.app/>

- Utilized Static Generation for homepage to improve SEO and to optimize speed
- Implemented Server-side Rendering for search page to prerender results before delivering to user
- Used TailwindCSS to learn to use a CSS framework for quicker styling of site as well as easier to implement media queries
- Built with Next.js and TailwindCSS

E-commerce Shop

<https://e-commerce-store-vert.vercel.app/>

- Deployed fully functional e-commerce store using commerce.js and Stripe for product management and payment processing
- Worked with useState React hook for keeping track of adding products to cart and checkout orders
- Learned to use Material-UI for component-based styling to make a visually appealing user interface
- Implemented React Hook Form plugin for efficient form validation
- Built with React and Material-UI

Work

Bartender - Beatrix River North

March 2018 - January 2021

- Worked as primary Bartender at one of Eater Chicago's Top Rated Restaurants
- Designed cocktail menu drink options in line with industry trends
- Efficiently worked with team of others and built quality relationships with guests to improve repeat business